THANKS

SPECIAL

ELIZABETH CAREY MINAS

Mention the name Elizabeth Carey Minas to a GFC student and the first thing he or she probably thinks of is the academic scholarships given in her name. However, the dedication and commitment Elizabeth Carey Minas shows for George Fox College is far more valuable than the $30,000 given each year to deserving students.

Every weekday since 1971, this 76 year old lady has voluntarily worked in Shambaugh Library giving a half-day of her valuable service. Minas was a professional librarian for 37 years, but today she selflessly contributes her talents with exemplary loyalty to the College.

Her association with GFC is not limited to the last 14 years, however. She attended the school from 1927-29, and her father served as President from 1947-50.

For the willingness to serve and loyalty to the college for over 50 years, L'Ami would like to extend a special thanks to Elizabeth Carey Minas.

RON CRECELIUS

Ron Crecelius had been a chaplain for 18 years before he moved in to the title of Chaplain Emeritus in 1985. He now devotes his time to speaking and ministering throughout the West.

He graduated from Fox with two degrees, earned a masters from both Western Evangelical Seminary and Pasadena College.

The students who knew him as their chaplain - loved him. The students who now know him as Chaplain Emeritus - love him.

The L'ami staff tip their hats to Ron Crecelius and his endeavors here at George Fox College. May he have many more years of good counsel, ministry, and Joy at Fox.

"God loves you, Ron, have a good day."

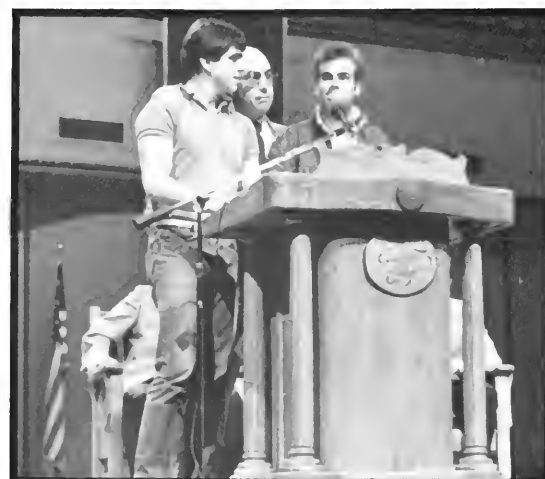

TIM TSOHANTARIDIS

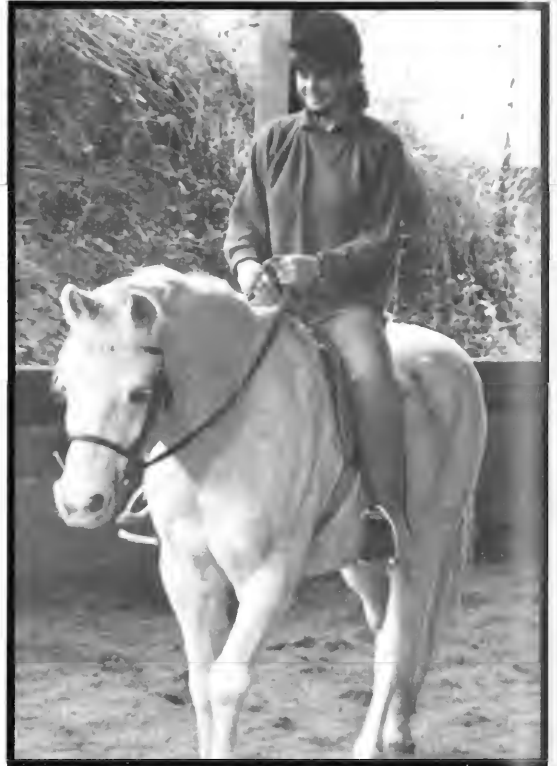

Tim Tsohantaridis, or "Mr. T", as the soccer team affectionately calls him, has become a living inspiration for GFC. His vivid stories from his childhood seem to challenge each listener to evaluate what living for Christ means. But more importantly, Tim Tsohantaridis has become a vital part of our campus.

Filling the place of Ron Crecelius was a tremendous task, but Tim did not look at it that way. For him it meant another way to serve Christ. And that is exactly what Tim has done. Thanks, "Mr. T" for serving God here at Fox!

SENIORS HOUSING

Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith, and in purity. Be diligent in these matters, give yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see your progress. Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers.

I Timothy 4:12, 15, 16

SENIORS

And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgement; That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. Philippians 1:9-11 KJV

Fufil ye my joy, that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Philippians 2:2-4 KJV

HAITI TRIP

Poverty and injustice permeate the history of this small caribbean island. We saw a celebration of hope for the country following the overthro of President-for-live, Jean Claude Duvalier, hope for a leader concerned about meeting the needs of the proletariat and not merely amassing her/his personal wealth.

We saw the Christian Church in Haiti caring for the needs of the whole person. We worked on a reforestation project with the Haitian Christian Development Fund. This kind of Christian community development with the teaching that Jesus is the One who can meet every human need, embodies the real hope for Haiti. One older gentleman in Fonde de Blanc, Said "The only good that has come to Haiti has come through the Church."

This winter the theatre department brought to life Shakespeare's comedy A Midsummer Night's Dream.

The talented cast brought to life the magic of the Fairie Kingdom in a colorful forest setting, as well as portraying the pomp of royalty in the courts of Athens. It was a magical trip for all, and as Director Darlene Graves promised, a great remedy for those midwinter blues.

SCREWTAPE

"In 'Screwtape,' we ridiculed the materialistic philosophy declared in the name of realism. We must continually create and live out the alternative provided by Satan's Enemy, who 'leaves us to carry out from the will alone, duties which have lost all relish.' He wants us to learn to walk, and must therefore take away His hand.' Since He is pleased as long as we keep trying, we must redouble our efforts to break through the gloom of Satan's kingdom. This means breaking Satan's rules and extending love to a young colleague, our political enemy, a nagging mother, or an unruly son. Love is the antidote for the Pit of alienation which is the result of our selfishness. If 'Screwtape' did anything, I hope it empowered people and showed that our love, our prayers, our work can make a difference. We are joined together in the Light before which all devils must retreat.

OKLAHOMA!

G.F.C.'s first music theatre production of the year was Oklahoma by Rodgers and Hammerstein. Jennie Spada, a junior, portrayed the role of Aunt Eller, Raelyn Godfrey, a freshman, was Laurey Williams, and Darla Tuning, a sophomore, played Ado Annie Carnes. Mark Duhrkoop, a sophomore, played Andrew Carnes, Annie's father, Tim Oppenlander, a sophomore, was Ali Hakim, the peddler man, and Dave Unis, a freshman, played the "mean and nasty" Jud Fry. Will Parker, the cowboy, was played by freshman Jon Bilderback and Curly, was Laurey's sweetheart, was played by freshman Drake Toombs. The cast also included about thirty chorus members.

As usual, the sets, which were designed by Tim Oppenlander, turned out beautifully. They also provided several late-night construction sessions for the cast. Of the four performances, of the show, closing night provided the most fun for the cast. Many unexpected things occurred, a rubber chicken and feathers falling from the ceiling of Bauman Auditorium and the Elixir of Egypt's great increase in size being only two of the jokes. Oklahoma was a fun show for everyone, and overall, it was one of the best done in recent years.

1. Will (Jon Bilderback) and Ado Annie (Darla Tuning) decide they must give their relationship "All 'er Nuthin'!" 2. Jud (Dave Unis) is tired of being single in his "Lonely Room." 3. Curly (Drake Toombs) and Laurey (Raelyn Godfrey) "Let People Say We're In Love." 4. Oklahoma joins the nation as a brand new state. 5. An Oklahoma hello and congratulations on marriage. 6. At the box social, the farmer and the cowman decide to be friends.

INTERMISSION

Intermission is a small troupe of actors and musicians headed by director Darlene Graves. The group was founded ten years ago and has since developed a variety of vignettes to fit every occasion. This year's troupe consists of eight very talented actors and musicians. In keeping with Intermission's theme, "Provoking thought, promoting talk," Intermission is a definite learning experience. They have had the opportunity to share their faith and talent throughout the Northwest as well as traveling to Hawaii the past two years.

MADRIGAL DINNER

George Fox College's fifth annual Madrigal Dinner - "Ye Olde Royal Feaste" - took place on the nights of Dec. 5-7, 1985. A Christmas celebration in the merrie olde English tradition transformed the Heacock Commons into a scene from the Elizabethan age.

The two-hour program opened with a procession of singers and included a royal toast from the wassail and the carrying in of a boar's head. The evening consisted of: music played by professionals on their own Renaissance instruments, brass fanfares, antics by a court jester (and the page), magic by a court wizard, dancing, lighthearted madrigal singing, a handbell chorus, and inspirational medieval and Renaissance Christmas carols.

The Madrigal Dinner was put on by the G.F.C. Chorale and Chamber Singers. Dr. John Bowman was the musical director and Robin Carmichael (who played Queen Elizabeth) worked with the dancers and gave all of the stage drama direction.

1. Queen Elizabeth and members of the court sing some traditional carols. 2. During final rehearsal LaVonna practices her manners while Tim Oppenlander is 'jest' not in the mood. 3. Lords and ladies of the court dance for the queen. 4. The page (Jon Bilderback) and the jester entertain the court with a few antics. 5. Dress rehearsal - last chance to get it right! 6. In her alterego as a beggar, Kris Croly still can't keep her mouth shut. 7. Cindy Comfort, one of the many servants, serenades some diners at their table.

PRACTICAL JOKES

On January 22, 1986, President Ed Stevens was kidnapped by a group of radical terrorists. This group, known on campus at ASCGFC, or Angry Student Communists of GFC, demanded a ransom of 1,000 cans of food for the needy to be placed on the chapel stage. Fortunately for the President, who had reportedly been tortured in the ASCGFC offices, the food was provided by faculty and students.

Other practical jokes this year included the decoration" of several offices, including (from left) The Crescent office, the L'Ami office (including a yearbook design on the floor), and Tom Head's office.

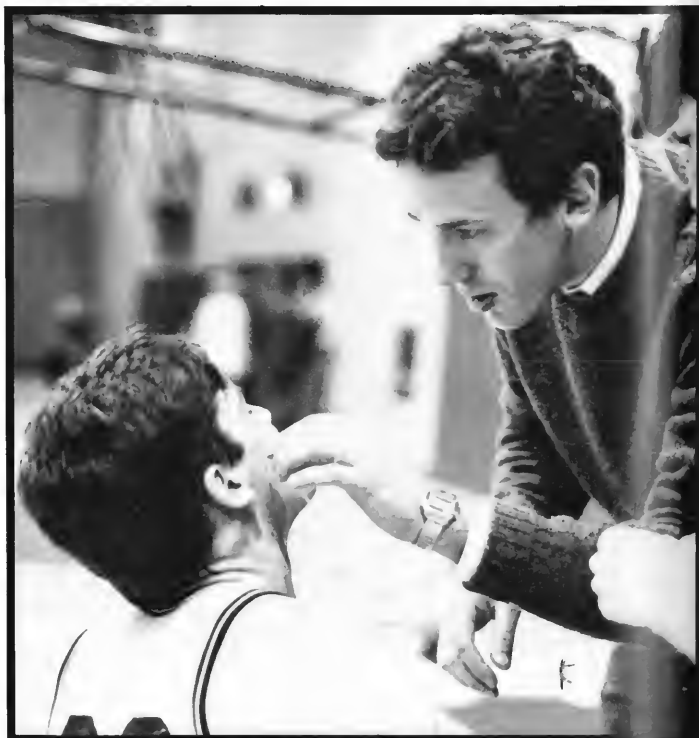

HOMECOMING

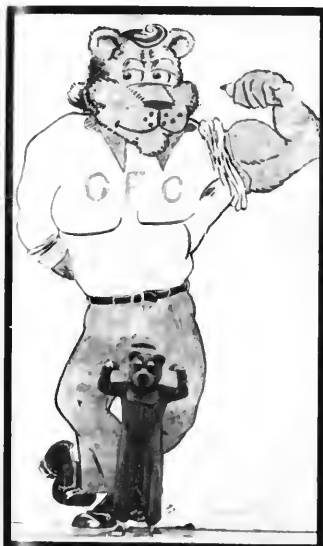

Valentine's Day began the weekend of GFC's 1986 Homecoming activities.

The homecoming court included Seniors Lori Butsch and Jeff Vandenhoeck; Juniors Deborah Jayne and Curtis Kimbrough; Sophomores Rhonda Potter and Steve Gower; and Freshmen Cynthia Voigtel and Drake Toombs. Crowned 1986 Queen was Deborah Jayne.

In the Homecoming game Saturday, the Bruins defeated Western Oregon State College.

Other homecoming activities that weekend included the GFC Fun Run, a J.V. vs. Alumni basketball game, an Alumni Performance program, and an all-you-can-eat pizza feed at Abby's.

Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize? Run in such a way as to get the prize. Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training. They do it to get a crown that will not last; but we do it to get a crown that will last forever.

VOLLEYBALL

"This year's volleyball season was a rollercoaster year with the uphill fight and downhill slide. Though this years team was inexperienced, being 50% freshman, they put forth a valiant effort to match the success of last year.

The team members were frustrated at times, but were devoted to each other and the team was held together. The fun times, like riding home in the van from the Southern Oregon State Tournament, made it a good year. We stopped at Rice Hill twice.

Between ice-cream and a hard season, we learned the meaning of commitment in our lives for more than volleyball."

MENS' SOCCER

The George Fox Soccer Bruins ended their second season of existence with a 5-11 showing. But don't let the record fool you, with a little luck and a few breaks, the Bruins could've easily been 1-0-6.

In all but 2 of the 11 losses, the young team was ahead or tied with their opponents at halftime. But inexperience proved to be the Bruin's own worst enemy as they gave up 9 losses, 2 in overtime, in the final 45 minutes.

The youngest team in the league, G.F.C. had 7 freshmen starters, and only 5 returning players from last year's squad. A knee injury about mid-way through the season to sophomore goalkeeper, Jim Quatier, thrust Jr., Steve Cammack, into a position that he'd never played. Thanks to some coaching from Quatier, and a lot of hard work, Cammack was named the NCCAA District all-Tournament goalie, as well as the squad's Most Improved Player award. Also named to the all-Tournament 1st team were freshmen Andy LaVeine, and Steve Benson. Receiving Honorable Mention honors were 3 Freshmen: Tim Hyatt, Rich Renner, and Dan Seale, who was also chosen by the team as the Best Defensive Player. Paul Beck, an all-tournament coach was named the Most Valuable Player and the Best Offensive Player for the Bruins.

The next few years look promising for George Fox Soccer. With the addition of new head coach Tim Tsohantaris, and the return of 16 out of 17 of this years squad, the Bruins should be a top contender in the next few years.

GFC's 21-10 1985-86 men's basketball season is the second best in the college's 21 years of NAIA competition. Twenty new school records were also set. The team averaged 83.6 point a game, and topped the 100 point level five times. In district competition, GFC was 18-7 reaching the semifinals before bowing 76-67 to Oregon Tech. In the NCCAA playoffs GFC's season ended with a 65-61 loss at Western Baptist; going into the game GFC was ranked No. 1 in the nation in the NCCAA.

The majority of this year's awards went to Kenny Stone, a 6-6 junior forward. Stone was named an NAIA All American, being selected to the third team. He was the Number One player for All-Northwest small college team. Stone also received the NAIA District 2 Player of the Year Award, one that usually goes to a senior. For the second straight year, he was named NCCAA regional MVP and All-American. Stone was also named GFC's MVP.

GFC has a good 1986-87 season to look forward to; five of this year's starters are returning.

A flying leap by Les Harrison gains two points for the Bruins.

1. Kenny Stone guards his man.
2. Coach Mark Vernon discusses strategy with the team.
3. "Nobody's going to get past me."
4. Two points for David Lee.
5. Stuff that ball, Curtis!
6. A smooth move by Al Vassey.

By ending with a 14-13 season record and gaining a NAIA District 2 playoff berth, GFC Lady Bruin Basketball Coach Craig Taylor says he accomplished his 1985-86 goals. The season was a success in Taylor's eyes; George Fox was one of only five teams in the district with winning seasons. The key part of the season, according to Taylor, was an excursion to Southern Oregon. The team matured a lot and learned what it was like to win on the road, especially when under pressure. The Lady Bruins beat Oregon Tech and SOSC to earn a district playoff spot.

No individual awards were given this year. Taylor feels they are anti-productive; he prefers to emphasize team work. However, there were two post-season awards given. Susie Davis and Tammy Lewis were named to the district's Honorable Mention All-District team.

Taylor considered this year as one of learning for the best, most talented group of freshmen he's ever had. These newcomers will hopefully be able to replace graduating starters Diane Walter and Laura Hendricks.

Susie Davis shoots the ball as her teammates await a rebound.

1. Trying not to foul, an opponent lets Marianne Funderhide get by with a shot.
2. No, Laura Hendricks is not demonstrating a new ballet step; she's making a lay-up.
3. Suzie Davis struggles to get two points.
4. An opponent attempts to block Tami Lewis' shot.
5. Trapped between two opponents, Traci Young attempts to get two points for the Lady Bruins.
6. Marianne is finding a way to get the ball past the opposition.

Although this year's cross-country team didn't do well as a whole, several individuals placed high in the ratings. At the NAIA District 2 championships the Bruins finished fifth, not quite what Coach Allen had hoped for. "I'm really positive about the year," Allen said. "We competed well and stayed right in there."

Jerred Gildehaus was the team's strongest individual this year. He won the District championship and went to Tennessee to finish 27th in the nationals. Gildehaus missed All-American designation by just five seconds. Jerred also received the MVP award from GFC.

This year's Most Inspirational Award was shared by Gildehaus and Dwight Larabee. The Most Improved Award went to freshman Larry LaFleur, of whom coach Allen said was promising for the future.

Running is a good workout for Dan Price.

1. On your marks ... set ... go!
2. Does Coach Allen enjoy running, or is he just smiling for the camera?
3. Exerting his last ounce of energy, Tim Graham nears the finish line.
4. Scott Ball and Larry LaFleur run neck-to-neck as they reach the end of the race.
5. Running quite exuberantly, Lindley Stanton nears his goal.
6. Use those leg muscles, Jerred!
7. Dwight Larabee has almost finished.

SENIOR EDITORS PAGES...

This year has not been the proverbial "piece of cake" that any of us had hoped for. "Slapping" the book together took more time and energy than any of us alone could give. Without the support and encouragement of each of the editors and staff we never could have made it. I think that we've all gained a sense of unity and learned how to appreciate each other for who they are. Each of us are very unique personalities with individual talents that were given an opportunity to express themselves on these pages. We thank you for your support of us individually and of the L'Ami.

God Bless You G.F.C.
